

Rochdale RSPCA ANIMAL CENTRE

Corporate Sponsorship

We feel corporate sponsorship of the new Rochdale Animal Centre is a great idea to put our company ethos in the public eye and to demonstrate our support for the local community.

The Centre is well managed and deserving of our support. We are delighted to be able to contribute to the good work of the RSPCA in Rochdale.”

We receive no government funding but in spite of this have built one of the North of England's best Animal Centres

The RSPCA Animal Centre on Redcross Street, Rochdale.

We could show you animals in distress but we prefer to show you the end results!

The Rochdale Animal Centre is a bright, modern, friendly building professionally managed by people passionate about animals and their welfare

In a recent survey 85% of the public supported the RSPCA's animal welfare objectives

The Rochdale branch of the RSPCA was established well over 100 years ago. We have recently established a brand new Animal Centre and over the coming months we plan to lift the public's perception of animal welfare and the role of the RSPCA in Rochdale.

The newly equipped Animal Centre on Redcross Street is a safe and happy refuge for many animals who would otherwise be subjected to cruelty, or be living a miserable life on the streets around us. Most are found loving homes and stay with us just long enough to regain their strength and confidence.

The Centre is a vital community resource and meets this challenge with facilities, equipment and staff trained to the highest standards to comply with stringent RSPCA rules. The huge level of support and goodwill we now generate can be gauged by the fact that everything was purchased from fundraising activities in the area. We now have a superb base on which to build a higher public profile.
